FINAL VOTE ON THE TARIFF BILL

Hope it May Be Reached Before Adjournment Tonight.

DEPENDS ON DEBATE.

Passage of Measure Assured—Democratic Leaders Resting Easy at Present.

Washington, Sept. 6.— With some hope of a final vote on the tariff bill before adjournment tonight, the Senate met this morning at 10 o'clock and resumed the tariff discussion.

It is expected it will be found impossible to reach a vote before the beginning of next week. It will depend on the progress of the debate. Senate Simmons, however, has things shaped up in expectation that a vote may be reached late tonight or early Sunday morning, and all absentees on the Democratic side who can get here have been mustered in readiness for the final vote.

Passage of the bill is assured. The Democratic leaders are resting easy on this point. Senator Newlands returned yesterday afternoon, saw Senator Simmons, told him he intended to make his fight for changes in the bill within the party, and thus relieved Mr. Simmons apprehension.

Two Democratic caucuses yesterday—one in the morning and one last night—cleared up disputed features of the bill. Income tax rates it was decided, should be graduated as high as 7 per cent on incomes above $500,000. It was also decided to retain the Clarke amendment imposing a tax on cotton futures.

DIES FROM DOSE OF POISON.

Miss Evelyn Wilson Succumbs to Drink Taken by Mistake.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 6.—Miss Evelyn Harwood Wilson died Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock at the Lawford Hospital, where she was taken for treatment after having taken the contents of a six-ounce bottle of arsenic at her home at St. Bride's Va., on last Saturday, mistaking it for aromatic spirits of ammonia. Notwithstanding the fact that she made a desperate fight for her life, and everything possible was done by Dr. Lawford, the attending physician, every effort to stay the hand of death failed.

Miss Wilson on Saturday took two teaspoonfuls of arsenic, her usual dose of aromatic spirits of ammonia, which she took for fever and nervousness. Physicians were immediately summoned and the fight to save her life was begun. Her condition continued to grow worse until Sunday afternoon, when Dr. Lawford was summoned and she was removed to the Lawford Hospital.

PLAYED WITH PISTOL.

Child Fires Weapon and Bullet Grazes Another's Throat.

Bedford City, Va., Sept. 6.—A most remarkable escape from a serious accident occurred Thursday morning in the yard of Mrs. E. B. Bibb, where four children were playing.

Mrs. Bibb had sent a colored boy in her employ of about twelve years to the store for some rubber bands for cans. The boy first went to his home and secured a small pistol of .22 calibre which was loaded; then went to the store and procured the rubbers and returned to Mr. Bibb's house. He went into the yard where the children were playing and handed the pistol to John, the little son of Mr. Bibb, and told him to shoot, which the small boy thinking it a toy pistol, was nothing loth to do, and fired away promiscuously.

The ball grazed the throat of Jack Hopkins, a small visitor, but did no other harm than scorch the throat a little and cover it with blackened powder. There was great demoralization among the children, but no real harm done. The escape seemed really miraculous.

The colored boy was sent away at once by Mrs. Bibb, but no steps as to punishment was taken, it being supposed he did not realize the great danger that might have resulted.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Mrs. Frederick Lewisohn, wife of the banker, either lost or had stolen from her two rings worth more than $25,000, when she was stopping with her husband at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, New York.

That there were wholesale and disgraceful robberies from dead bodies at the railroad wreck at North Haven, Conn., on Tuesday morning, is declared by Coroner Mix in a report yesterday to Chief of Police Smith, requesting him to apprehend the culprits. Coroner Mix said during his inquest witenesses told of men cutting fingers off dead passengers to get rings, and of persons searching clothing of injured passengers to secure money or valuables.

Farley Drew Caminetti, son of the commissioner general of immigration, was found guilty in San Francisco yesterday on one count of the indictment charging him with violation of the Mann white slave act. Bail in the sum of $10,000 was furnished by Frank Freeman of Willows, Cal., and G. Bacigalupi, of San Francisco. Sentence will be pronounced Wednesday.

Harry Endicott, of Anderson, Ind., a brother of "Farmer Bill" Endicott, the noted automobile racer, and Mary Sarata, of Jackson, a 10-year-old spectator, were killed and three persons injured at Jackson, Mich., yesterday afternoon, when Endicott's automobile, hurtling around the race track, crashed through a fence after one of the front tires blew up.

An attempt was made yesterday to assassinate Moritaro Abe, director of the political bureau of the Japanese foreign office. He was stabbed in the abdomen, and is suffering from a severe wound.

Dulwich College, a famous school in a southern suburb, of London, which was built at a cost of $500,000, was set on fire in two places early yesterday. Suffragette literature was found pinned to trees in the vicinity with women's hatpins. The flames were extinguished before serious damage done.

Miss Rose Lesser, of Yonkers, N. Y., being persuaded by Alexander Manscher to agree to elope with him, drew $60 of her savings from a bank and intrusted the money to his care. He left her, ostensibly to buy railroad tickets, and when he did not return she became suspicious, and asked police aid. He was found and arrested in Providence, R. I., having eloped there with 17-year-old Pauline Deyoan, also of Yonkers.

Paymaster H. W. Mahar, Assistant Cashier Fred Boatman, and Deputy Sheriff Joyner, of the J. G. White Construction Company, of Parr Hoals, S. C., were held up by three armed bandits yesterday afternoon, and robbed of $16,000, which had been sent there from a Columbia bank to be used in paying off the 1,800 employees of the company. Deputy Sheriff Joyner, of the clerical force of the construction company, attempted to resist the highwaymen, and was shot. The bullet entered the fleshy part of his side. The others, seeing the result of resistance, and being unarmed themselves, were forced at the point of six revolvers to give up the bags containing the money. The three bandits escaped into the woods.

Harry K. Thaw will be produced before the full king's bench, appeal side, at Montreal, on the morning of September 15. Meantime he may be detained at Cosicook, or at Sherbrooke, or taken to Montreal on a moment's notice, at the discretion of the immigration authorities.

J. P. Morgan & Co., served notice yesterday upon the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company of their intention to end their connections as fiscal agents of the road after 90 days. No reason was given by officials of the New Haven system for the withdrawal of J. P. Morgan & Co., as fiscal agents of the road.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Harris & Shafer Co., will be held at the office of the company, 123 South Royal St., Alexandria, Va., at 2:30 P. M., Thursday, September 25, 1913.

By order of the President.

FIRE SWEEPS HOT SPRINGS

Two Thousand Persons Rendered Homeless Early This Morning.

THE LOSS IS $10,000,000.

Flames Spread Over Area of Nearly a Mile—Burns Out at Foot of Mountain.

Hot Springs, Ark., Sept. 6.—After sweeping an area a mile long and several blocks wide and causing a loss estimated at nearly $10,000,000, the fire that threatened the destruction of nearly the entire city early today was burning itself out at the foot of West Mountain, the southern extremity of Hot Springs.

Two thousand persons wandered about the ruins today homeless but no fatalities have been reported. Governor Hayes, who arrived here last night, was in conference with city officials at an early hour today, and expected to call out State troops to patrol the burned over section.

The devastated district is a mile long and five blocks wide.

A shifting wind shortly before midnight came to the aid of a force of men, working desperately with dynamite to stay the progress of the flames, and the main business section was saved. Thirty blocks, including many of the principal buildings are in ruins.

Among the buildings destroyed were the court house, city jail, city hall, high school, Park and Moody hotels, Ozark Santitarium and Iron Mountain depot, while the water works, light and gas plants were put out of commission.

OPENING OF NEW CLUB HOUSE.

Alexandria Motorboat Club's New Home on River Front.

The formal opening of the new club house of the Alexandria Motor Boat Club will take place next Friday night from 8 to 11 o'clock. An interesting program of exercises has been prepared and a pleasant time is assured all who may attend.

The club has invited their lady friends to be present on the occasion. The club will be profusely decorated, and refreshments will be served during the evening.

The new club house is a neat and attractive structure. It is situated on the river front between Wolfe and Wilkes streets, opposite the small railway operated half a century ago by the late Robert Hunter and Sons.

HEAVY COAL TAX.

Alexandrians Will be Compelled to Pay $3,000 Per Annum Extra.

Alexandria will be compelled to pay approximately $3,000 to the state treasury of Pennsylvania on account of the tax on anthracite coal which has just gone into effect in that state. The state has added two and one-half per cent to the value of every ton of anthracite coal mined in that state and this tax must be added by the dealers to the consumers. All of the local dealers have been notified that they must pay the tax imposed by the state.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

Colored Woman Loses Her Life and Others Suffer Shocks—Damage by Storm.

Chatham, Va., Sept. 6.—A few days ago during an electrical storm near Natal, in the extreme northern part of the county, one young colored woman was killed by lightning and seven others, taking shelter in the same barn, were shocked, one being seriously injured, and others had the skin torn from parts of their bodies. During the same afternoon the storm passed over a large area of country being accompanied by high wind and hail, and doing much damage in some sections. In the locality between Spring Garden and Shockoe, the damage was heavy, the largest losers being M. D. Neal, who had one field of tobacco, containing 60,000 hills totally ruined.

DAUGHTER SAVED BY MOTHER.

Young Woman Picks up Heavily Charged Wire.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 6.—Miss Sadie Strawhand, daughter of Detective W. J. Strawhand, 16 years old, residing at 314 32nd street, narrowly escaped electrocution Thursday afternoon when she picked up a heavily charged wire in the yard of her home. Miss Strawhand would undoubtedly have been killed but for the prompt action of her mother, who seeing her daughter fall with the wire clutched in her hand, seized an axe and severed the death-dealing strand.

The wire was attached to a burglar alarm, which had been rigged up by A. B. Strawhand, brother of the young woman. The alarm was connected up with the main electric line, and it is said that a current of 220 volts passed through Miss Strawhand's body.

Immediately upon taking hold of the wire Miss Strawhand fell unconscious. Her mother happened to see her daughter's dangerous predicament and acted in time to save her life.

INTEREST LAGS IN CURRENCY BILL

Committee Continues Hearing—Proceedings Are Monotonous.

SENATORS WANT REST.

Chicago Bankers Still Urging Objections to Certain Features of the Measure.

Washington, Sept. 6.—With the Weeks resolution referred to the Banking and Currency Committee, with many senators on both sides of the chamber getting ready for a rest after the tariff bill passes, and with general uncertainty whether there will be currency legislation before next winter, the Banking and Currency Committee of the Senate is continuing its hearing on the Administration currency measures.

Bankers representing the Chicago conference and others continue to object to features of the bill.

James B. Forgan, of Chicago, again estimated that there would be a possible contraction of credit amounting to $1, 800,000,000, as the result of the passage of the bill. At the same time he admitted he thought this could be worked out.

Mr. Forgan, George M. Reynolds, of the Continental and Commercial Bank of Chicago, and former Congressman Hill, of Connecticut, criticised phases of the measure yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Reynolds objected to compulsory membership in the regional banks, compulsory rediscount between the regional banks and failure to give the banks representation on the Federal board.

Mr. Hill held the banks should be made responsible for the issue of notes and the government relieved of responsibility and called failure of the bill to do this "a fatal defect."

POHICKER ON THE RAMPAGE.

Took Dinner in Market House Lunch Room, Refused to Pay and Cursed Proprietress.

George Cook, of the Pohick neighborhood, visited the city today and took dinner at a lunch house in the market conducted by Mrs. Fannie Cook. After having dispatched the meal he started to leave without settling with the hostess. When the latter requested pay he cursed her, using unconventional language and threatening her with bodily harm.

Mrs. Cook appealed to the police for protection, and Sergt. Wilkinson soon overhauled Cook. The latter was defiant to the officer, threatening him also, but Mr. Wilkinson soon placed him behind the bars. The accused was later brought before the police court and was fined $5 and was compelled to pay 25 cents additional in order to meet Mrs. Cook's claim upon him. He was told that he must settle with the court and complainant or spend the next ten days in jail.

Cook finally reached down in his pocket and drew out the money, mumbling to himself at the time that he did not relish being robbed. Upon being told that any contempt would subject him to an additional outlay he manifested a temporary case of aphasia, and having paid all assessments, left.

Shortly after Cook had been released he drank himself drunk, and started in his wagon for home. He was too much under the inuence of liquor to guide his horse, and the animal having dodged street cars, automobiles and other vehicles as far as King and Henry streets collided with a wagon in charge of James Minor, breaking a shaft of the latter. In the collision Cook was thrown into the street and his head cut. He was placed in his wagon and returned to the station house, where he again acted defiantly to Sergeant Wilkinson and was locked up. He is now charged with drunken and disorderly conduct and destroying property.

Henry Gunnell, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.00.

Nimrod Jackson, colored, charged with non support of his family, was given until noon to decide whether he will return home and live with his wife and children or go to the roads for six months.

ASSAULTED IN SANCTUM.

Doctor Attacks Councilman for Voting Against Him.

Fredericksburg, Sept. 6.—Thursday afternoon at a late hour Dr. R. J. Payne walked into the office of The Free Lance-Star and demanded of Mr. W. E. Bradley in an angry manner why he had not voted for him for Health Officer at the meeting of the Council Monday night. Mr. Bradley replied that he reserved the privilege to vote as he chose and no one had a right to question it. Heated words followed, when Dr. Payne assaulted Mr. Bradley by throwing him to the floor and striking him several times with his open hand.

Dr. Payne is a vigorous man of 38 years. Mr. Bradley is in his 70th year.

Dr. Payne was arrested and taken before Justice Dannehl and fined $10 and costs, from which he appealed.

The trouble grew out of the election for Health Officer by the Council last Monday night. It seems that on Monday morning Messrs. Henry Warden, R. L. Biscoe nad W. J. Ford, three Councilmen met at Mr. Biscoe's store with Drs. Payne, Scott and Pratt, three avowed candidates for the office. There the three physicians decided by casting lot which one of the three should be the candidate for Health Officer that night before the City Council.

Mr. Bradley, president of the Council, was at King George court and was phoned to during the day as to the action of the three Councilmen and three doctors, and when he returned in the evening he and the members of the Council who had not been at the conference of the doctors and the three Councilmen in the morning decided that they would not be controlled by the action of the three Councilmen.

At the meeting that night Dr. C. Mason Smith was elected over Dr. Payne.

Mr. Bradley is the oldest member of the Council and was one of six members who voted for Dr. Smith for Health Officer.

CHILD DROWNS IN KETTLE.

Little Girl Loses Her Life in Ten Gallons of Water.

Monterey, Va., Sept. 6.—News was received here of one of the most distressing accidents that have ever occurred in the county. It was the death by drowning of a little child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Folks, on Dickson Hill, eight miles south of Monterey.

The circumstances attending the accident were singular. The mother left the house, with the little one—just a year old—playing about the porch. Nearby was a large copper kettle full of water, and when she returned a few moments later the little child was found dead in the vessel. The kettle did not contain more than eight or ten gallons of water, but the child fell head first and was drowned.

MURDERER ESCAPES.

Makes Escape Few Hours Before High Court Acts.

Richmond, Sept. 6.—Just a few hours before the State Supreme Court of Appeals returned a writ of error and supersedeas Tuesday, giving him an opportunity for a new hearing, Craig Atkinson, a prominent young jeweler of Boykin, sentenced to eighteen years imprisonment by the Circuit Court of Southampton county, effected his escape from the Courtland jail and thus far the authorities have not been able to locate him.

Atkinson, who has been confined in Courtland jail for more than a year, pending legal technicalities incident to his appeal to the higher court, cleverly fashioned keys of tin and wood with which he succeeding in unlocking both the doors of his cell and the outer doors of the prison.

He is said to have been aided by confederates, who provided both a horse and an automobile to carry him across the North Carolina lines Sheriff Turner followed the fugitive for several miles, but lost the trail and gave up the chase.

Atkinson's attorneys asked for a writ of error on the ground that the trial judge had refused to admit the evidence of an important witness to the effect that his father-in-law, Beale, had threatened Atkinson's life more than once, and further that the convicted man had acted in self defense. The arguments set forth in the petition were sufficient ot warrant the court in granting the petition, but before it had been formally recorded Atkinson had broken jail and had departed for parts unknown.

On July 4, 1912, Atkinson went to the home of his father-in-law in search of his wife, who had returned to her parents. After hot words, Atkinson shot him dead. Several months after at Courtland he was sentenced to eighteen years in State's prison and was confined in the Southampton county jail pending an appeal until yesterday.

Atkinson, who is a good locksmth, was taken sick several weeks ago and was removed from a murderer's cell to a larger room, during which time he was allowed a little more freedom.

With the aid of a small piece of wood, some galvanized tin and twine, he made three separate keys, the first being no good, the second unlocking his rom door and the third unlocking the main entrance to the jail.

After Atkinson went out two negroes left the yard and went to the house of Sheriff Turner, notifying him of the escape. Atkinson was evidently aided by one or more confederates, as the negroes state that some one was walking around the jail yard before his escape, and Sheriff Turner, with Jailer Turner, his son, tracked Atkinson, who left on horseback, for two miles, where he is supposed to have left in an automobile, which was tracked into North Carolina, his native State.

Atkinson was visited several days ago by his father, who left later to visit a son in Portsmouth. The making of the keys with the tin, etc., showed the cleverness of Atkinson as a locksmith.

Foreman's Injuries May Prove Fatal From Accident.

Danville, Va., Sept. 6.—H. H. Hunt, white, foreman in the new cotton mills being constructed at Schoolfield was run over here Thursday night by the 4,000-pound touring automobile belonging to W. H. Noell, containing six passengers. The accident occurred at the corner of Main and Chestnut streets. Hunt was struck while alighting from a street car, the machine passing entirely over his body just below the waist. He was removed to his home at once and medical attention rendered At a late hour last night his physicians stated that he was resting easy, but it was impossible to say whether or not his injuries would prove fatal before forty-eight hours. No bones were broken, but it is feared that he has sustained fatal internal hurts..

FOUR IN RACE FOR JUDGE.

Davis, Staples, Kelly And Hutton Would Succeed Retiring Judge Buchanan.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 6—One of the most interesting fights now facing the general assembly of Virginia, which meets in January, is for the vacancy on the bench of the State Supreme court to be caused by the retirement of Judge John A. Buchanan, of Emory. Already there are four aggressive candidates in the field and the friends of each are prepared to make a strenuous campaign, both before the legslature meets and while it is in session, for their favorites.

Richard B. Davis, of Petersburg, present assistant attorney-general of Virginia; Judge Waller R. Staples, of Roanoke; Judge Joseph L. Kelly, of Bristol, and Judge F. B. Hutton, of Washington county, are the four most prominently mentioned candidates for the vacancies, though there may be others in the field before the legislature meets.

LIFE-SAVERS RESCUE 24.

Schooner George W. Wells Wrecked by Storm Near Hatteras Inlet.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 6—Life savers of Hatteras, Ocracoke, and Durants Neck stations established a new record for bravery when they rescued 20 men, 2 women, and 2 children from the six-masted schooner George W. Wells, which went ashore Wednesday 3 miles north of Hatteras inlet, during the terrific storm which swept the Virginia and North Carolina coast. The schooner, which was one of the largest afloat, is a total wreck.

The vessel was bound from New York to Fernandino light. When discovered by life-savers the men and women were clinging to the vessel's riggings.

The wind was blowing 70 miles an hour, and the rain fell in torrents. After several unsuccessful attempts the life-savers finally succeeded in reaching the schooner and all were taken off.

An unknown schooner, with one mast standing and no signs of life on board, is ashore 3 miles north of Ocracoa. The revenue cutter Seminole has gone to her assistance. Two miles farther south an oil steamer flying the British flag is also ashore. Life-savers have been unable to learn her name, but are making strenuous efforts to reach her.

RACE WITH DEATH FUTILE.

Young Woman Expires in Hospital After Record-Breaking Trip.

Richmond, Sept. 6.—A race at a terrific speed with death proved of no avail to Miss Josie M. Richardson, who was brought to Richmond aboard a fast train from Old Point Sunday before last to undergo an immediate operation for appendicitis in St. Elizabeth's hospital, where she passed away Thursday. Miss Richardson had been visiting in Mathews county when she was stricken. She was taken aboard the steamer Mobjack to Old Point and from there brought to Richmond, an additional locomotive being used to bring the train, which had hundreds of seashore excursionists aboard, on record-breaking time to this city.

HEAVY LOSS TO FARMERS.

Corn is Leveled And Tobacco Crop Torn to Ribbons by Terrific Storm.

Virgilina, Va., Sept. 6.—The worst storm in years passed over this section Thursday. Beginning in the early part of the morning it continued nearly all day, abating somewhat late in the evening. Corn was leveled and tobacco was torn to ribbons. As about one-half of the tobacco crop was still in the field, the loss to the farmers will be very heavy.

In the town itself the streets were strewn with limbs blown from the shade trees, and a section of the roof of the Virgilina Tobacco Warehouse was blown off, fortunately being over the only part of the house which did not contain tobacco.

DIES OF LOCKJAW.

Little Girl of Bedford City, Stepped on Tack.

Bedford City, Va., Sept. 6.—A very distressing death occurred Thursday morning at the home of Mr. James Parish, on Queen street, when his little daughter, Emma Lucy, only 8 years of age, died from lockjaw. On Friday, August 29, not quite a week ago, the little girl while playing steped on a tack. Just twenty-four hours before her death she was attacked with lockjaw and despite the use of antitoxin and other remedies, she succumbed to the dread disease. The deepest sympathy is felt for her parents in their sad and pathetic affliction.

SOLDIER COMMITS SUICIDE.

Despondent Because Sweetheart is About to Marry Another.

Winchester, Va., Sept. 6.—Despondent, it is said, because the girl to whom he was engaged was about to marry another man, Ernest Baker, a young trooper in Troop M, Eleventh United States Cavalry, committed suicide Thursday night on a company street at the maneuver camp near Winchester. It is said he had been sending his money to the girl to save in order that he might obtain his discharge from the Army and marry her. A day or two ago he received a letter stating that she intended to marry another man. Since then Baker had been despondent, and Thursday night, obtaining a quantity of carbolic acid, he swallowed about four ounces and died in a few minutes. He was 20 years of age, and was from Hamilton, O.

MAYOR FISHER ENDS FIRST YEAR.

One year ago this week Mayor Thomas A. Fisher took up his duties as mayor of Aleandria and so busy has he been with the affairs of the city that he has not had time to call attention to the fact, in fact it is doubtful if he would remember it unless it was called to his attention in this way:

He assumed office a fledgling in public life,without previous experience in municipal affairs except in so far as he was familiar with city business through the Board of Police Commissioners, of which he had been secretary for some years.

City Hall wise men, and chroniclers of the press who look with appraising eye on the city's servants and their successors agree that Mayor Fisher has put in a good year's work. Twelve months is a short time in which to leave one's impress on the sands of time. His influence is traceable in much of the progress of the past year, and he has brought harmony between departments which might otherwise have enjoyed only an unstable entente cordiale.

There have been a number of features of his first year that have appealed to the people generally. First and above all is the fact that he has kept regular office hours in the City Hall where he could always be found by those who wished to conduct business with the city's head.

The first year of the Mayor's administration has been a pleasant one. Outside of one or two small differences with City Council caused by his veto of measures which had not been properly passed, and in which he was promptly sustained there has been nothing unpleasant to mar the serenity of his Honor.

The Gazette extends to the Mayor its compliments on the termination of his first year's work and hopes that the succeeding years of his administration may be equally pleasant.

"THE MENACE" EXPOSED.

For some weeks past the Gazette has been receiving copies of a small newspaper published somewhere in Missouri called "The Menace," whose purpose is the abuse of the Catholic Church and appeal to the wildest and most fanatical anti-Catholic feeling. We understand that several hundred copies of the publication is received in Alexandria and distributed among persons who are inclined to believe the absurd and blasphemous falsehoods which are published at length in this paper. It had been our intention to review some of the articles, but it has been so well done by the Roanoke Times that we give space to the following extracts from an editorial appearing in that paper:

"The upper part of the first page of the issue of July 5th is occupied by a head extending entirely across the page concerning an attack on Jeremiah J. Crowley, at Olewein, Iowa. It seems that Mr. Crowley is a "renegade" Catholic priest. We say "renegade" because while any man has the right to change his religious faith and church membership, the man who does so and proceeds to make a living by abusing and slandering his former associates, deserves that comprehensive description. "The Menace" tells us that the "Outrage is branded as a strike at liberty, free speech and the vitals of our government." It conveys the further interesting information that "never since the revolutionary war of 1776 have any people been so thoroughly aroused as are the citizens of the State of Iowa, over the attempt to assassinate the Rev. J. J. Crowly, by Roman Catholic mobs in Olewein, Iowa." Sifting down the facts, we find that Olewein is a town of 6,000 people and that Mr. Crowley lectured there June 12. After he left the lecture hall two or three men hustled him and somebody belted him over the head once. It does not appear that he even was knocked down. Two men were arrested and were released on their own recogniance. Nine citizens of Olewein, including three Protestant pastors, two editors and four business men, expressed publicly the opinion that the attack was a shameful affair. One of the pastors is quite enthusiastic. He seems to have the idea that the belting, or thumping, was instigated directly by the Pope; and "The Menace," concerning the incident, wants to know whether the death knell of our liberty has been sounded already, answering its own question with the somewhat broad assertion that "from Americans in every city, town, hamlet and hillside in this country, the answer comes 'No! No, Not while we have a drop of blood left in our bodies!' "

"The Menace," further informs its readers that the Catholics of Olewein have one thousand rifles stored in the basement of their church, ready to assassinate their Protestant neighbors and make Olewein another St. Bartholomew. We wonder if anybody really does believe such stuff as that.

"The lower half of the same page is occupied with a fearful description of an attempt by "infuriated Roman Catholics" to destroy the Rev. Wallace Tharp, who spoke on Martin Luther in a Pittsburg hall. In this case the tragedy consisted of some jeering and of the hitting of a police officer who was dispersing a crowd on the outside of a hall. The average reader must be impressed with the fact that while one of these incidents occurred on June 12 and the other June 17 nobody outside of the immediate localities has heard of them and the American people as a whole have declined to be agitated or thrilled Possibly the Pope choked off the telegraph wires and prevented the news of these horrors from reaching the country.

"In its issue of August 16th, "The Menace" seems to have run out of riot material and massacre suggestions, but it fills in very well with a displayed story of a nun who fled from a convent to Silverton, Oregon. This interesting female narrates that six months before she had escaped from a convent vaguely described as "in the East," but was kidnapped on the streets of Portland and confined at Mt. Angel. She is convinced, she tells a horrified pastor, that if caught again she will be murdered, as she knows of several other escaping nuns who have been murdered, names, dates places and murderers not given. When she escaped formerly and took refuge with her parents and other relatives "in the East," "their houses were burned down over their heads." Places and dates and names omitted, presumably for prudential reasons. The rest of the alleged story of the alleged escaped nun is unfit for publication, and should not be allowed to pass through the mails. The gist of it is that in every convent scores of infants of priests and nuns are born and systematically murdered every year."

We may well wonder whether any intelligent people anywhere really believe horrible, indecent and blasphemous falsehoods like this and what peculiarities of mental construction cause them to believe. It is curious to observe what following and attention may be commanded by extreme radicalism and violent slander and assertion in any direction, utterly regardless of probabilities and possibilities.

OVERWORKED ENGINEER AND FLAGMAN.

The investigation of the latest railroad horror by which a score of persons were killed and about fifty injured on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, shows that one of the contributing causes of the disaster was the fact that the engineer and flagman, at whose doors the calamity is placed, were almost fagged out from excessive work—that they were physically incapacitated for the responsibility placed upon them—they were forced to keep going at a time when they had almost reached their ne plus ultra. The engineer begged to be excused from taking charge of the locomotive attached to the ill-fated train, as he needed rest. But, like the Wandering Jew, he was kept going and the terrible disaster followed.

Conditions were decidedly against these subordinates when their superiors refused to listen to their appeals. There was fog, and danger signals were passed by those who were endeavoring to keep awake.

Men employed by corporations often become automata. They have but little time for recreation, and their minds are necessarily absorbed by their calling. They dream of trains, semaphores, dinner pails, etc., and when endeavoring to indulge in exhausted nature's sweet restorer should they hear a knock at the door they involuntarily start to get into their clothes, supposing it is the call man.

There are many eleemosenary movements in this world, some for instance for the betterment of jail conditions. There is ample room for a movement for overworked men who, like the machinery they operate, will eventually wear out.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emery, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak a its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

Present Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge
Abel Douglass,
Vs. in Chancery.
Mary E. Douglass.

Upon the application of the complainant, Abel Douglass, stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, Mary E. Douglass the Court on the 21st day of August 1913, doth grant the following order of publication:

The object of this suit is to obtain a decree divorcing the complainant from the defendant, a divorce from bed and board, (a mensa et thoro) on the ground of wilful abandonment and desertion without just cause or excuse on the part of the defendant and to obtain a divorce absolute(a vinculo matrimoni) when the said desertion has continued for a period of more than three years last past, and an affidavit having been made and filed that the defendant, Mary E Douglass, has not been found within the jurisdiction of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that she appear within fifteen days after due publication of said order of publication and do what is necessary to protect her interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of said order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria Va., that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of said city on or before the 1st day of September, 1913, that being the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered, and that a copy of said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court, addressed to the said non resident defendant at 414 Erie Avenue, Williamsport, Pa., her last known place of abode.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A defalcation of $130,000 in the State National Bank of Fort Worth, Texas, was reported yesterday to Thomas P. Kane, acting comptroller of the Currency, by National Bank Examiner Van Zandt. The shortage will not affect the solvency of the bank. The bank examiner reported that the whereabouts of Vice-President M. L. Woods was unknown. Comptroller Kane ordered that the facts be reported to the United States attorney at Fort Worth. The bank's surplus and profits amounted to $232,000, according to the last report to the comptroller. The capital is $500,000.

After murdering his wife and four children and cutting their bodies to pieces with a knife, a manize school teacher named Wagner, yesterday ran amuck through the streets of Mulhlhausen, Germany with a revolver in each hand, shooting ten persons to death and mortally wounding twelve others. Wagner rushed through the principal thoroughfares brandishing his firearms and firing into buildings and at every person he saw. His aim was uncanny. Hardly a shot was wasted. He left a trail of dead and wounded. After a long chase Wagner's ammunition gave out and he was overtaken by a mob. He was thrown to the ground, kicked and trampled upon, and before the police could rescue him was fatally injured.

The body of a young woman, with the head and legs severed and missing, was found yesterday at Cliffside, N. J., on the shore of the Hudson. There was not a shred of clothing that might serve as a clue to the identity of the woman, who appeared to have been about 25 years old.

VIRGINIA:

In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of the City of Alexandria, on the 14th day of July, 1913.
O. G. Staples,
vs.
H. C. Browning.
Action of Trespass on the case in Assumpsit. Damages $5,000.00.
Memo:
The object of this suit is to recover the sum of $4,061.73 due by the said H. C. Browning to the said O. G. Staples on account of money which the said O. G. Staples was compelled to pay as endorser for the said H. C. Browning, and to attach the real estate of the said H. C. Browning in the state of Virginia to satisfy said $4,061.73.

It appearing by an affidavit filed in this cause that the defendant, H. C. Browning, is a non-resident of this state: It is Ordered: That said defendant appear here within fifteen days after due publication of this order, and do what is necessary to protect his interest in this suit, and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Alexandria Gazette a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, once a week for four successive weeks, and posted at the front door of the Court House of this city.

A NEW ALLIANCE.

Japanese-American Parliamentary Union Organized.

The Hague, Sept. 6—An American-Japanese parliamentary union was formed yesterday by the groups of delegates representing the two nations at the interparliamentary conference now in session here. The organization, which was due to the initiative of Victor Hugo Duras, of New York follows the line of the one already effected between French and German groups.

At a preliminary meeting of the union a resolution introduced by Jas. Luther Slayden, congressman from Texas, was adopted expressing "the desire to effect an organization for the purpose of encouraging relations between the two great powers of the Orient and the Occident."

SACKING OF NANKING.

Looting Lasts Over Three Days—Japanese Masacred.

Peking, China, Sept. 6.—Dispatches received here from Nanking report that the northern armies completely sacked that city. The looting and other excesses lasted three days. The soldiers visited the American consulate and demanded money, but Mrs Albert W. Gilbert, wife of the vice-consul, during the absence of her husband, pluckily talked the men out of their designs, reminding them that the Americans were their friends. The soldiers then left the consulate.

Another party of soldiers attempted to enter Amarican Presbyterian mission. They threatened to shoot the Rev. Alfred V. Gray, the resident missionary, because he refused to open the gate.

Looters also tried to force the gate of the Rev. J. M. P. Gill's American Protestant Episcopal mission. They fired several shots through the closed gate, but when it was finally opened and the looters observed foreigners inside, they departed.

Tokyo, Sept. 6.—Detachments from the Japanese warships on the Chinese coast have been hurried to Nanking.

Official reports from that city state that a number of Japanese subjects who were carrying Japanese flags for their protection during the recent fighting between the government troops and the rebels, were deliberately massacered.

London, Sept. 6.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Tokyo says that the late reports received from Nanking indicate that more Japanese had been killed there than at first reported.

STORM IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Fourteen Persons Drowned — Loss $25,000,000—Marine Disasters.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 6.—Ocracoke Island has not been submerged with its 500 inhabitants, according to railway passengers who visited the storm-stricken district and found no losses of life reported there.

Likewise Roanoke Island, in one of the sounds as Ocracoke, escapes without loss of life and property destruction in Ocracoke and Roanoke is relatively less than in many cities well removed from the sounds.

Ocracoke Island is a narrow key of the groups that shut off Pamlico Sound from the Atlantic. It lies 20 miles southeast of Bluff Point, N. C. Its only village, Ocracoke, is near its souther nextremity, just off Ocracoke Inlet.

Eight hundred persons, principally the families of fishermen, compose Ocracoke village. All buildings are erected on stilts above the water, and communication from house to house is conducted by boats.

Reports continue to tell of drownings in the middle of the streets overwhelmed by streams. At Bayboro a boatmen capsized in the main thoroughfare and was lost.

There is no change in the figures of the general loss—$25,000,000.

The six-masted schooner, George W. Wells, which went ashore south of Hatteras, has gone to pieces. The 20 men, two women and two infants rescued from the schooner Wells after great difficulty by the life savers are being temporarily cared for in the vicinity of Ocracoke Inlet and Durant Lifesaving Stations.

The schooner reported ashore three miles north of Ocracoke turns out to have been a four-masted schooner sighted in distress 12 miles off shore with her main topmast and bowspirit gone. This vessel is believed to have been the schooner Annie R. Heidritter, heretofore reported drifting helplessly eight miles south of Diamond Shoals with her rudder broken and otherwise disabled. The Revenue cutter Seminole is proceeding to the schooner's assistance.

THREE VIRGINIAN SPEAKERS.

Flood, Hay And Watson, All Occupy Speaker's Chair In the House.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 6.—Thursday was distinctly "Virginia Day" in the House, not that any spectacular events were pulled off, but by reason of the fact that three Virginia members of the House, Representatives Flood, Hay and Watson, presided over its deliberations during the course of the day's business.

When the House met at noon and began consideration of the urgent deficiency bill, Congressman Flood was put in charge of and immediately became speaker "pro tem" as long as the bill shall be under consideration. A little later on he asked Congressman Hay to take the chair, and towards the close of the day Representative Watson wielded the gavel.

It was remarked here during the day that never before perhaps in the history of Congress had three members from the same State presided over the House on the same day on the same bill.

It is needless to say that each of the three Virginians made an excellent presiding officer, and that should it ever become necessary to choose a successor to Speaker Clark from among the Democrats, there is plenty of good material in the Virginia delegation to draw from.

Killed in Dynamite Blast.

Lynchburg, Va., Sept. 6.—While standing two hundred feet from a blast, which was 100 feet under the ground at the Piedmont manganese mines, six miles east of Lynchburg, Tom Hudson, colored, was instantly killed, when a flying stone fell on his head, crushing the skull and caused instant death.

ARREST OF ELOPERS.

Virginia Maid And Washington Boy Arrested in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 6.—After eloping to this city from Washington, D. C., several days ago, but learning upon their arrival here that the girl was too young to wed without her parents' consent, pretty Louise Rhoades, a rosy-cheeked athletic looking girl of 17, from the mountains of Virginia, and Francis Cannon, of Washington, were arraigned in police court yesterday. They were held under bond for a further hearing on Monday. By that time it is believed the consent of the parents of the girl to her marriage will have been received.

When arrested the girl told the police that she had met Cannon three weeks ago in Washington, D. C., and that they had been living here in order that Cannon, whose parents are wealthy, might show them that he could earn his own living instead of being sent to college, as they planned. When they arrived here Cannon obtained a position as waiter in a lunchroom, and there he was found by officers when they went to arrest him.

Union Not Recognized.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 6.—In response to a telegram of inquiry sent to General Manager George P. Johnson, of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, who was at Clifton Forge, Va., regarding the terms of settlement of the averted strike of Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad clerks affiliated with the Brotherhood of Railroad Clerks this information was received from that official.

"Made no settlement with clerks other than that such men as can will be re-employed. We do not recognize the union. There will be no strike and no concessions made according to my advice."

Richmond, Sept. 6.—According to reports received here from Cincinnati, the officers of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway claim to have won in the recent controversy with the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks which threatened to order a strike over the entire system.

An understanding was reached here this week with President Stevens and General Manager Johnson, the conference proving satisfactory to the officers of the Brotherhood, who desired recognition by the railway officers.

The officers of the railway, including General Manager Johnson, claim that they won a victory in that a strike was averted. About 1,500 men would have been affected in case of a walk out. The men are now working harmoniously, and there is no fear of threats of further trouble anywhere along the railway system.

ENVOY ON WAY HERE.

Comes to Negotiate With U. S. on Plan to End Mexican Revolution.

Washington, Sept. 6.—That Manuel de Zamacona e Inclan, former Mexican ambassador to the United States and until recently financial agent for the Mexican government in London, is on his way to Washington to endeavor to carry forward the negotiations between the Huerta administration and the United States for a solution of the revolutionary problem, was confirmed in official circles here yesterday.
